Course Title: Music Fundamentals II

Course Description:

Music Fundamentals II is a continuation of the MUS-101-103 courses for students who wants to learn functional, contemporary theory from the keyboard. Course includes progression study, transcribing songs, writing charts and keyboard study.

Type of Course: Career Technical Supplementary

Reason for the new course:

Current MPT students are not getting the contemporary information they need to succeed in one year of fundamentals and Group Piano.

This will replace their Group Piano requirement.

They will take it for three terms during their second year of study in the MPT program
