Course Reactivation Curriculum Office Curriculum Committee Department The department identifies a need for a course reactivation. The department assesses the need and impact of the course reactivation. An Outline Review Team course to a Curriculum Committee Outline Review Team if updates reviews and recommends the course for approval. The department discusses the course The department reviews the course content in the Curriculum Management The Curriculum Office puts the course on the next Curriculum Committee Agenda for approval. outline was not approved. Related Instruction or reviews and approves the General Education. course during the meeting. Curriculum Committee meeting to answer questions posed by the The Curriculum Office enters the approved course information in the Student Information System and in CCWD Webforms, if applicable. The Curriculum Office sends a The appropriate Sub-Committee course marked as Related reviews the course for approval for Instruction or General Education Related Instruction or General to the Related Instruction Sub-Education and informs submitter of Committee or General Education recommendation. Sub-Committee, respectively. The Curriculum Office puts the course on the next Curriculum The appropriate Sub-Committee Committee Agenda for Related presents their recommendations to Instruction or General Education the Committee approval. Curriculum Committee The Curriculum Office enters the reviews and approves the approved course information in the courses recommended for Student Information System and in Related Instruction or CCWD Webforms, if applicable. Seneral Education during the meeting.