

March 17, 2020

Effective 1 p.m., March 17, all CCC campuses are closed to the public through April 5. In an effort to take all prudent measures to protect the health and safety of the college community as the spread of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) accelerates, all CCC buildings are officially closed to all people, except active CCC students taking finals or conducting official college business and CCC employees. This closure includes family, friends and visitors of the community. We apologize for this inconvenience and thank you for your cooperation.
