

The college will reimburse employees and board members for business-related travel expenses. The college will remain supportive of professional development and self improvement that requires travel while maintaining procedures to ensure the cost effective and appropriate use of college resources. The procedures shall comply with all applicable federal and state requirements.