

ARC 601 - Policy

Expressive Conduct

PURPOSE

Establishes regulations for time, place, and manner of speech and other related activities on CCC campuses.

SUMMARY

Clackamas Community College recognizes, values, and supports the freedom of speech, thought, expression, and assembly. The exercise of these freedoms is central to the fulfillment of the College's academic mission.

These regulations ensure the daily functioning of the College and its activities by setting forth reasonable regulation of time, place, and manner of speech activities on the College campus. These regulations are not to be interpreted or enforced in a way that targets any speech activity on the basis of its content.

For the purposes of this document, speech activities include petitioning, leafletting, speech-making, demonstrating, picketing, and rallying. Other types of activities may also be included under the umbrella of speech activities. For posting on campus bulletin boards, see CCC signage guidelines and procedures

POLICY

The College outlines policies regarding speech activities on campus as follows:

1. (Time): Speech activities are limited to times when classes are in session (which may include day, evening, and weekend times during the academic year). When classes are not in session, then speech activities are limited to regular business hours of the College (typically Monday-Friday, 8a-5p).
2. (Place): Speech activities may take place on any College grounds outside of campus buildings, as long as such areas are not designated for authorized or limited access only. However, organized speech activities may not occur in areas dedicated to a specific purpose that would be disrupted thereby, such as parking lots, athletic areas, or walking trails.
3. (Place): Interior locations may not be used for petitioning, leafletting, demonstrating, picketing, or rallying. Interior locations may be used for invited speaker events, as defined below.
4. (Manner): No speech activities may impede pedestrian and vehicular traffic or unreasonably disrupt regular or authorized activities in classrooms, offices, laboratories and other College facilities or grounds. Such activities must take place at least 25 feet from all building entrances.
5. (Manner): No speech activities may be conducted at a sound volume or otherwise in a manner which disrupts the normal use of classrooms, offices, laboratories, and other College facilities.
6. (Manner): No speech activities shall be conducted in a manner that is unlawful, that endangers the safety of the College community or public, that causes damage to College facilities and property, violates CCC policy or procedures or misrepresents/implies that the College sponsors, supports, or endorses any view, belief, or statement being expressed.

Special Guidelines for Rallies and Demonstrations

1. Recognized College student organizations who wish to schedule a demonstration, rally, or equivalent activity must request space through the regular reservation procedure with the Student Life and Leadership Office and submission of the Rallies and Demonstration Space Request Form.
2. Students, staff, faculty, campus departments, or members of the public who wish to schedule a demonstration, rally, or equivalent activity must request exterior space through the regular reservation procedure with the Facilities Reservations Office and submission of the Rallies and Demonstration Space Request Form. Contact information for the organizer must be provided, as well as the nature of the activity.

3. Rallies and demonstrations are restricted to occur in exterior locations only and must follow all other general guidelines above.
4. Persons desiring to conduct a rally or demonstration must notify the applicable office at least one full (24 hour) business \(is this enough time to notify all appropriate college personnel?\) Campus Safety indicated it was enough time for them, and had actually pointed out that in some instances, it would be preferable to have the speech occur in the moment and not be forced to wait. day prior to the rally or demonstration in order to ensure public safety and appropriate staffing. Groups wanting to use tables or chairs must provide three full (72 hour) business days \(and why is it 72 hours for some groups but two weeks for others?\) I am not aware where it says two weeks. notice for the activity. Rental rates apply for off-campus groups.
5. Rallies or demonstrations may not take place in any location where another organization has previously reserved the space.
6. Organizers for rallies and demonstrations must check in with the Student Life and Leadership office or the Facilities Reservations Office (or with Campus Safety if during a time these offices are closed) upon arrival to campus.
7. Length of Rallies and Demonstrations. Rallies and demonstrations are limited to take place during the same calendar day for a maximum of 12 hours.
8. Black-out dates. Rallies and demonstrations shall not occur on the dates of the following occasions: All-Staff Kickoff of In-Service, Fall Student Kickoff, and Graduation. How was the decision made regarding these specific events? > These dates are ones in which significant numbers of the campus staff would be otherwise engaged and unable to monitor speech event.

Special Guidelines for Invited Speakers

1. Student organizations and campus departments shall have the right to invite speakers to address audiences on campus, and should follow the normal reservations process, either through the Student Life and Leadership Office or the Facilities Reservations Office.
2. Invited speaker events may take place within designated spaces that are typically used for such purposes, including classrooms and auditoriums. Regardless of location, the event may not interfere with the College's mission of instruction and related services and business operations.
3. The right of speakers to speak and audiences to hear free from undue disruption and interference shall be protected. Members of the community who wish to conduct expressive conduct related to an invited speaker must follow all guidelines above.
4. Sponsoring groups must not imply the College's endorsement of the invited speaker or the speaker's views, unless so indicated by a staff member authorized to represent the College.
5. Materials given or advertisements for event may not insinuate in any way the College is sharing views, content or responsibility for those leading and/or participating in events unless the College's Public Information Officer has given written consent to use the College logo(s), or permission to advertise on behalf of the College.

Applicability

This policy applies to property owned or controlled by Clackamas Community College. In the case of leased or rented property, it applies only to the confines of the property under control by CCC, not to a greater property area outside of CCC control and owned by a third party.

Enforcement

CCC Campus Safety, in partnership with the Departments of Student Life and Leadership and Facilities Reservations, shall enforce the provisions of this policy.
