

Sexual Harassment

The College is committed to the elimination of sexual harassment in its programs, services and intercollegiate activities. Sexual harassment is strictly prohibited and shall not be tolerated. This includes sexual harassment of students or staff by other students, staff, Board members or third parties. "Third parties" include, but are not limited to, volunteers, parents, visitors, service contractors or others engaged in College business, such as employees of businesses or organizations participating in cooperative programs with the College and others not directly subject to College control at athletic competitions or other events. "College" includes College facilities, College premises and non-College property if the student or employee is at any College-sponsored, College-approved or College-related activity or function where students are under the control of the College or where the employee is engaged in College business.

Sexual harassment of students and staff shall include, but is not limited to, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal, nonverbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

1. The conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of demanding sexual favors in exchange for benefits;
2. Submission to or rejection of the conduct or communication is used as the basis for educational decisions affecting a student or employment or assignment of staff;
3. The conduct or communication is so severe, persistent or pervasive that it has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a student's educational performance or with an employee's ability to perform his/her job; or creates an intimidating, offensive or hostile educational or working environment. Relevant factors to be considered will include, but not be limited to, did the individual view the environment as hostile; was it reasonable to view the environment as hostile; the nature of the conduct; how often the conduct occurred and how long it continued; age and sex of the complainant; whether the alleged harasser was in a position of power over the student or staff member subjected to the harassment; number of individuals involved; age of the alleged harasser; where the harassment occurred; and other incidents of sexual harassment at the College involving the same or other students or staff.

Examples of sexual harassment may include, but not be limited to, physical touching; or graffiti of a sexual nature; displaying or distribution of sexually explicit drawings, pictures and written materials; sexual gestures or obscene jokes; touching oneself sexually; or making inappropriate sexual comments; talking about one's sexuality in front of others or spreading rumors about or rating other students or others as to appearance, sexual activity or performance.

All complaints about behavior that may violate this policy shall be promptly investigated. Any student or employee who has knowledge of conduct in violation of this policy or feels he/she is they are a victim of sexual harassment must immediately report his/her their concerns to the compliance officer or department supervisor who has overall responsibility for all investigations or any College administrator. A student may also report concerns to an instructor or counselor who will promptly notify the appropriate College official. The student or staff member who initiated the complaint shall be notified of the findings of the investigation and, if appropriate, that remedial action has been taken.

The initiation of a complaint in good faith about behavior that may violate this policy shall not adversely affect the educational assignments or study environment of a student complainant or any terms or conditions of employment or work environment of the staff complainant. There shall be no retaliation by the College against any person who, in good faith, reports, files a complaint or otherwise participates in an investigation or inquiry of sexual harassment.

It is the intent of the Board that appropriate corrective action will be taken by the College to stop the sexual harassment, prevent its recurrence and address negative consequences. Students in violation of this policy shall be subject to discipline ~~up to and including expulsion and/or~~ counseling or sexual harassment awareness training, ~~up to and including~~ up to expulsion, as appropriate. Employees in violation of this policy shall be subject to discipline, ~~up to and including~~ additional sexual harassment awareness training, ~~up to and including~~ up to dismissal, as appropriate. Other individuals whose behavior is found to be in violation of this policy shall be subject to appropriate sanctions as determined and imposed by the President or designee.

Additionally, the College may report individuals in violation of this policy to law enforcement officials.

The President or designee shall ensure appropriate periodic sexual harassment awareness training or information is provided to all supervisors, staff and students and that annually, the name and position of College officials responsible for accepting and managing sexual harassment complaints, business phone numbers, addresses or other necessary contact information is readily available. This policy as well as the complaint procedure will be made available to all students and staff in student and staff handbooks.

The President will establish a process of reporting incidents of sexual harassment.

Family Medical Leave *

When applicable, the College will comply with all the provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) of 1993, the Oregon Family Leave Act (OFLA) of 1995, the Military Family Leave Act as part of the National Defense Authorization Act of 2008 and for Fiscal Year 2010 (which expanded certain leave to military families and veterans for specific circumstances), the Oregon Military Family Leave Act (OMFLA) of 2009, and other applicable provisions of Board policies and collective bargaining agreements regarding family medical leave.

FMLA applies to community colleges with 50 or more employees within 75 miles of the employee's work site, based on employment during each working day during any of the 20 or more work weeks in the calendar year in which the leave is to be taken, or in the calendar year preceding the year in which the leave is to be taken. The 50 employee test does not apply to educational institutions for determining employee eligibility.

OFLA and OMFLA apply to community colleges that employ 25 or more part-time or full-time employees in Oregon, based on employment during each working day during any of the 20 or more work weeks in the calendar year in which the leave is to be taken, or in the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which the leave is to be taken.

In order for an employee to be eligible for the benefits under federal law FMLA, he/she they must have been employed by the College for at least 12 months and have worked at least 1250 hours during the past 12-month period.

In order for an employee to be eligible for the benefits under state law OFLA, an employee they must work an average of 25 hours per week and have been employed at least 180 calendar days prior to the first day of the family medical leave of absence. For parental leave purposes, however, an employee becomes eligible upon completing at least 180 calendar days immediately preceding the date on which the parental leave begins. There is no minimum average number of hours worked per week when determining employee eligibility for parental leave.

OMFLA applies to employees who work an average of at least 20 hours per week; there is no minimum number of days worked when determining an employee's eligibility for OMFLA.

~~Federal and state leave entitlements generally run concurrently.~~

The President [or designee] will develop administrative regulations as necessary for the implementation of the provisions of both federal and state law.

Leave and Accommodations for Victims of Domestic Violence/Harassment/Sexual Assault/Stalking Leave

Definitions

1. “Covered employer” means an employer who employs six or more individuals in the state of Oregon for each working day through each of 20 or more calendar workweeks in the year in which the eligible employee takes leave to address domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking, or in the year immediately preceding the year in which an eligible employee takes leave for domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking.
2. “Eligible employee” means an employee who is a victim of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking or is the parent or guardian of a minor child or dependent who is a victim of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking.
3. “Protective order” means an order authorized by ORS 30.866, 107.095(1)(c), 107.700 to 107.735, 124.005 to 124.040 or 163.730 to 163.750 or any other order that restrains an individual from contact with an eligible employee of the employee’s minor child or dependent.
4. “Reasonable Safety Accommodation” refers to work modifications which could include changes to the employee’s work locations, assignments, job structure, contact information and security access which the employee requests and which would not pose undue hardship to the College.
5. “Victim of domestic violence” means an individual who has been a victim of abuse as defined by ORS 107.705; or any other individual designated as a victim of domestic violence by rule adopted under ORS 659A.805.
6. “Victim of harassment” means an individual against whom harassment has been committed as described in ORS 166.805 and any other individual designated as a victim of harassment by rule adopted under ORS 659A.805.
7. “Victim of sexual assault” means an individual against whom a sexual offense has been committed as described in ORS 163.467 or 163.525; or any other individual designated as a victim of sexual assault by rule adopted under ORS 659A.805.
8. “Victim of stalking” means an individual against whom stalking has been committed as described in ORS 163.732; or an individual designated as a victim of stalking by rule adopted under ORS 695A.805; or an individual who has obtained a court’s stalking protective order or a temporary court’s stalking protective order under ORS 30.866.

9. “Victim services provider” means a prosecutor-based victim assistance program or a nonprofit program offering safety planning, counseling, support or advocacy related to domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking.

A College shall allow an eligible employee to take reasonable leave for any of the following reasons:

1. To seek legal or law enforcement assistance or remedies to ensure the health and safety of the employee or the employee’s minor child or dependent, including preparing for and participating in protective order proceedings or other civil or criminal legal proceedings related to domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking;
2. To seek medical treatment for or to recover from injuries caused by domestic violence, or sexual assault to or harassment or stalking of the eligible employee or the employee’s minor child or dependent;
3. To obtain or assist a minor child or dependent in obtaining counseling from a licensed mental health professional related to an experience of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking;
4. To obtain services from victims services provider for the eligible employee or the employee’s minor child or dependent;
5. To relocate or take steps to secure an existing home to ensure health and safety of the eligible employee or the employee’s minor child/dependent.

The College may limit the amount of leave, if the employee’s leave creates an ~~undue~~ undue hardship on the College.

The College shall not deny leave to an employee or discharge, threaten to discharge, demote, suspend or in any manner discriminate or retaliate against an employee with regards to promotion, compensation or other terms, conditions or privileges of employment as a result of taking such leave.

The employee shall give the district reasonable advanced notice of their intent to take leave unless giving advance notice is not feasible.

The College shall provide reasonable safety accommodation, as far as is practicable, unless such accommodation causes undue hardship.

The College may require the employee to provide certification that:

1. The employee or minor child/dependent is a victim of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking; and

2. The leave is taken or the safety accommodation is provided for one of the identified purposes in this policy.

Sufficient certification includes:

1. A copy of a police report indicating the employee or child/dependent was a victim of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking.
2. A copy of a protective order or other evidence from a court, administrative agency or attorney that the employee appeared in or was preparing for a civil, criminal or administrative proceeding related to domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking.
3. Documentation from an attorney, law enforcement officer, health care professional, licensed mental professional or counselor, member of the clergy or victims services provider that the employee/minor child/dependent was undergoing counseling, obtaining services or relocating as a result of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking.

All records and information kept by the College regarding the employee's leave and accommodation request, including the request or obtaining of leave is confidential and may not be released without the express permission of the employee unless otherwise required by law. This information will be kept in a file separate from the employee's personnel file.

Staff Development

The Board believes that the College's most important asset is its staff. The Board also believes that the success of the institution is directly related to how the staff is perceived by those who use its services. Improving the capabilities of the staff to meet the changing needs of the public will improve the quality and effectiveness of the college.

Specifics covering staff development functions may be found in bargaining contracts and the College Employee Handbook and the Administrative, Supervisory and Confidential Staff Agreements Handbook.

Evaluation of Staff

An effective evaluation program is essential to a quality educational program. It is an important tool to determine the current level of an instructor's performance of the teaching responsibilities. It is also an important assessment of support services employees and current performance of their job assignments. Under Board policy, the President is responsible for developing a staff evaluation program. The evaluation program shall serve as a tool for supervisors who are responsible for making decisions about appointments, promotion, demotion, contract renewal or nonrenewal, dismissal and discipline.

This evaluation program shall be designed to provide an opportunity for staff to set goals and objectives, including plans for professional growth and career opportunities and receive supervisor responses to them; to receive peer assistance as appropriate; to have formal and informal classroom observations; to assess performance of other duties and job responsibilities of all staff; to receive verbal and written comments and suggestions for improvement from supervisors; and to have opportunities to make required improvement(s) within specific timelines.

Electronic Communication Systems Use

The electronic information resources at the College are to be used in a manner that supports the educational mission of the College. The College, by mission and policy, encourages learning, research, creativity, teaching and the free exchange of ideas in the spirit of openness, sharing, inclusiveness and respect. College administrative regulations contain guidelines establishing measures for the protection, access, responsibility and acceptable use of the College's electronic systems.

The Board is committed to the development and establishment of a quality, equitable and cost-effective electronic communications system. The system's sole purpose shall be for the advancement and promotion of learning and teaching.

The College's system will be used to provide statewide, national and global communications opportunities for staff and students.

The President will also establish administrative regulations for use of the College's electronic communications system to comply with copyright law. The President will also establish rules for minors attending the College to comply with the Children's Internet Protection Act.

The President will establish administrative regulations for use of the College's system by staff using their own personal electronic devices to download and store community college proprietary information including personally recognizable information about the community college, students or staff. Regulations shall insure compliance with privacy rights under applicable federal and state laws and regulations, including but not limited to the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (ADEA), the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA).

Failure to abide by College policy and administrative regulations governing use of the College's system may result in the suspension and/or revocation of system access. Additionally, student violations will result in discipline up to and including expulsion. Staff violations will also result in discipline up to and including dismissal. Violations of law will be reported to law enforcement officials and may result in criminal or civil sanctions. Fees, fines or other charges may also be imposed.
