Sex Offender Policy

PURPOSE

Provide regulation and process regarding attendance of sex offenders at Clackamas Community College (CCC).

SUMMARY

CCC follows all applicable registered sex offender legal requirements including the Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act (CSCPA), Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), and the Clery Act. Additionally, access to public sources of information regarding the identity of sex offenders is available to all members of the College community.

The Oregon State Police is the agency responsible for maintaining the sex offender registry and its dissemination. The College will not disseminate this information and will refer inquiries to the Oregon State Police. Persons under active supervision for sex offenses are responsible for complying with the terms of their supervision. With the makeup of the student body at Clackamas Community College, the college is unable to ensure that persons prohibited from being near minors will be able to comply with this restriction while attending classes.

Students who are not in compliance with sex offender registration requirements may be in violation of the Clackamas Community College student code of conduct and may be sanctioned accordingly.

RELATED

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act (CSCPA) of 2000 amends the Wetterling Act to require sex offenders to notify campus police or the appropriate law enforcement agency when enrolled or employed at institutions of higher education. See 42 U.S.C. § 14071(j) (Wetterling Act provisions added by the CSCPA amendment); 67 Fed. Reg. 65598 (October 25, 2002) (Attorney General's guidelines for the amendment). The CSCPA also amends the Higher Education Act of 1963 which requires higher education institutions to indicate where community members can obtain information about enrolled or employed sex offenders. The CSCPA also amends the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 to clarify that nothing in FERPA may be construed to prohibit an educational institution from disclosing information provided to the institution concerning registered sex offenders.

Questions about ORS Chapter 181A can be directed to the Director of College Safety. Refer to the Access, Retention, and Completion (ARC) 604 procedure for additional information about this policy.

Sex Offender Procedure

Notification Process:

1. Sex offenders are required to register with the Oregon State Police. The Oregon State Police may provide information to the College Director of College Safety of the names of sex offenders who have reported attending or being employed at the college. This information is under the control of the Oregon State Police and will not be disseminated by the College.
2. The Director of College Safety maintains a list of registered sex offenders that are students on the campus and will notify the Threat Assessment Team or the CARE Team of the individuals on this list as needed.
3. Students who fail to comply with the sex offender registration requirements may be in violation of the student Code of Conduct.
4. Persons under active supervision for sex offenses are responsible for complying with the terms of their supervision. Given the makeup of the student body at Clackamas Community College, the College is unable to ensure that persons prohibited from being near minors will be able to comply with this restriction while on campus.
