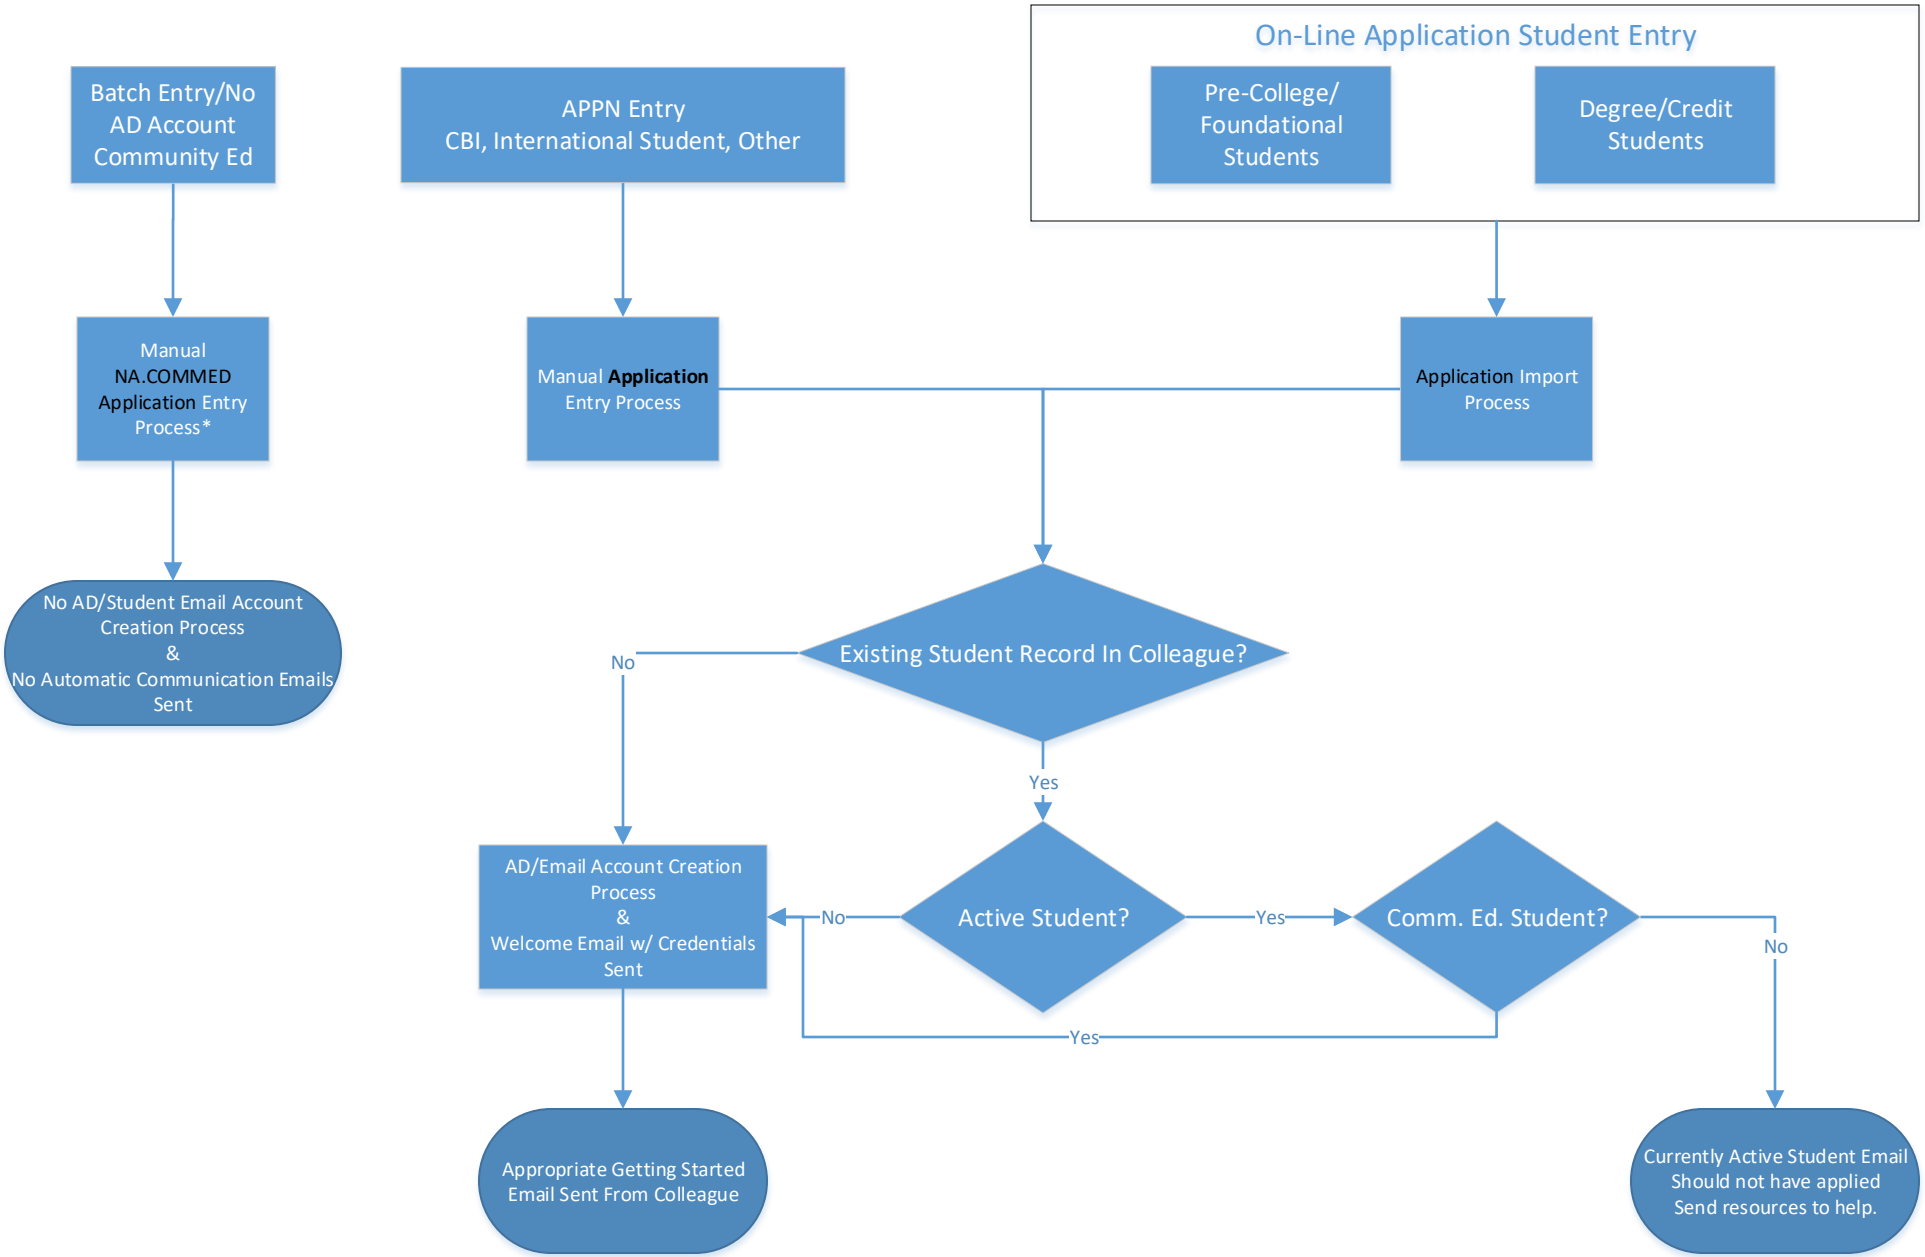
Reapplication & Reactivation Process Flow



* If there are no other active program on student's record other than NA.COMMED, then should we have a special Person Status that essentially works like "inactive" or do we just leave status alone (or even set to Inactive Student) by modifying the definition of the person status flag to indicate whether they have an AD Account and Email?